

I hope the FCC does not pass any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. We still receive unsolicited calls, but there are far fewer. I have some health problems, and am very annoyed to make it to the phone and find it's a sales call.

Please help us maintain our privacy and peaceful home.

Sincerely,

Janet Ettensohn